

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

THE NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE IS PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING AND EVENING BY GREELEY & MULCHAIR, SOCIETY OF FRIENDS OF SLAVERY AND FREEDOM, AND IS DELIVERED TO THE TRADE AT 12 CENTS PER WEEK. SINGLE COPIES TWO CENTS. MAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS $5 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE.
SIX MONTHS, $3. FOR THREE MONTHS, $1.50.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, A VAST LARGE PAPER FOR THE COUNTRY, Published every Saturday morning at the low price of 12 cents to advance. Eight copies on $1.00, or twenty copies on $1.50 per copy for $10.00, and the paper in no case can be sent back the time for which it is paid. Advertisements for this sheet will be charged according to the scale of rates.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Published every Tuesday and Friday morning. Price 12 cents per copy. Two copies to one dollar. Five for $1.50. Advertising rates same as for the semi-monthly.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, FOR EUROPEAN CIRCULATION, Published on the departure of each Mail Steamer for Liverpool, at 50 per cent less postage included. Single copies 6 cents.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE,
FOR CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND THE SANDWICH ISLANDS, Published on the departure of each Mail Steamer for Aspinwall, at 50 per cent less postage.

Single copies 6 cents.

Enlargement of the Canals.

THE INHABITANTS of the City of New-York, can see now by what means in this act that this city has already reaped the benefits of the construction of the great Erie and lateral Canals, and that the construction of the great Erie and lateral Canals is now in progress.

Not the growth of this city, and its unparalleled prosperity, an unquestionable argument to every citizen in favor of the Canal Policy of the State.

But you need not then address you all as the friends of the Erie Canal

The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an appeal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call

out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the following letter to

a Friend in the City of New-York, in which addresses from distinguished

persons of both political parties will be delivered, and an ap-

peal will be given to express the sentiments of those who may

assemble, according to the occasion to occur on the following day.

Yours very truly, J. T. LEWIS.

John T. Lewis, Chairman.

NOTICE.—The undersigned, believing that earnest and judicious efforts are

making to reduce Expenses, and the proposed Amendment

to the Canal Law, to the necessity of vigilance and effort to call out the best efforts of the people, have addressed the